When an E-Filing is moved to the Pending Queue, an issue has been identified that needs to be addressed before the filing is accepted. If a filing requires resubmission, a Pending Notice will be sent to your email address.

Pending Queue Reasons

Below is a listing of the possible reasons a batch would be pended.

Pending Reason	Explanation
Amount of Relief not in the document/complaint	When the amount of relief is not indicated in the body of the document or complaint.
Document(s) corrupt/illegible	Documents must be submitted on standard 8 1/2 x 11 inch page size, black & white or bi-tonal not color or greyscale.
Filing Fees Required	A pleading or action that requires filing fees. (For example, a motion that requires a reopen fee was submitted without the fee.)
Multiple cases filed in one batch	Only one case number may be filed per batch. Multiple documents are allowed but only for the same case number.
No such case on File (invalid case number)	The clerk is unable to locate the correct case number for your filing.
Petitioner Zip Code Needed (excluding Circuit Civil)	This applies to case types that require a zip code to determine the location where the matter will be heard.
Proposed Orders cannot be accepted for docketing please forward to court	Per AO 2.312 (G)(3) "Proposed orders and proposed judgments are to be sent to the requesting judge in accordance with the judge's instructions."
Separate pleadings were scanned together as one in error	Each E-Filed item must be submitted as a distinct item. Per AO 2.312 (G)(7) "Batched" documents will be docketed as "non-conforming batched documents" and only the title of the first document in the batch will be listed in comments of the docket.
Wrong Jurisdiction	A case for another county or a case that has been transferred to another county/jurisdiction.

Batches remaining in the pending queue will be reviewed. After 5 days, the batch may be moved to the judicial review queue and will no longer be available for corrections.
